Comment:

I am making clean earth and sustainable products for everyday life. I have fantastic business ideas. We use plant fiber and straw can make drinking straw and other products. We enjoy making everyday products from agricultural waste without water and air pollution.

Help California the best environment, is the friendliest state in the United States. This is a fantastic chance to be part of the sustainability revolution in California.

We will be creating manufacture near the rural and underserviced community. To offering their job, dignity, and respect as others.
